NUMBER 113.

TWO CONVICTS ARE KILLED

Eleven of the Fugitives Have Been Re-captured in Kansas.

Three of Them Wounded and the Others Diligently Pursued By the Officers.

THE CONVICTS ARE WELL ARMED.

Leavenworth, Kan., Nov. 9.—Eleven of the twenty-six escaped convicts have been captured, two killed and three wounded.

The casualties took place in a fight near Nortonville, Kas. The dead:

JAMES HOFFMAN, aged 20, white.

J. J. POFFENHOLZ, aged 25, white, a soldier convict.

The third, John Green, age 21, white, and fourth, Willard Drake, white, aged 19, are wounded and re-captured.

The men were discovered in the barn of Fay Weishaar, a quarter of a mile from Nortonville, Kas. Weishaar went into the barn and was ordered out at the point of guns. He rushed to Nortonville and gathered a wagon load of men who, with revolvers, shotguns and a few Winchester, hastened to the scene.

The convicts saw the men coming and rushed from the barn. They had two shotguns and revolvers. The posse pursued them and a running duel resulted. The convicts were at a disadvantage and their shots had no effect, while at every volley from the posse one of the convicts fell. After two of them fell two of the others gave themselves up. The fifth was fully 300 yards away when a man with a Winchester drew a bead on him and fired. He was evidently hit but tried to go on, and a volley was fired at him and he fell dead. None of the citizens were hurt.

The convicts had a rifle, a shotgun and an old revolver. Hoffman had the shotgun. He was shot first in the hand. He yelled and dropped the shotgun. Just then a bullet entered his back and he fell dead. Poffenholz died forty minutes after being shot. Green was brought down by a bullet in the knee. Drake was shot twice in the right wrist and arm. Drake says Sol Southerland, an Indian, was shot in the fight at the stockade.

The oldest of the fugitives is aged 28. Quinn Fort, who was killed yesterday, was 19 years old. One of the convicts still at large is a military prisoner and the remainder were serving terms for robbery or assault. One is an Indian and two are negroes. Nearly all came from Oklahoma and Indian Territory and they are supposed to be making for that country. They are hardy men, used to fire-arms, and horses. Some have obtained both, but others are foot and defenseless. Warden McClaughey says he will capture every one of the men. In the districts around the city every road and river crossing that the fugitives might be expected to use is guarded by armed men, the farmers having turned out to earn the $50 reward that will be paid for the return of each convict. Those of the men that are armed are likely to be shot on sight.

ELOPED TO UNION CITY.

Union City, Tenn., Nov. 9.—While seated in their buggy in front of the court house, Paul Scott and Miss Doany Bailey were made man and wife by Squire H. S. Sacra. It was a Gretna Green affair, the contracting parties being from Fulton county, Ky.

FATAL BOILER EXPLOSION.

Louisville, Nov. 9.—One man was killed and three injured by a boiler explosion at the Central stock yards this afternoon.

George Fusting, the engineer, in charge, was killed and Louis Just, Jake Young and John Douk, the injured.

Fusting was terribly mangled, the top of his head and part of his side being blown away, and death must have been almost instantaneous.

LIBRARY PROJECT GOES OVER

The City Council Will Leave the Settlement to the New Members.

There Was a Lively Discussion at the Adjourned Meeting Last Night.

OTHER MATTERS WERE CONSIDERED

All the members of the council except Mr. Wehle were present at the adjourned meeting last night to consider the library and other propositions.

There were many citizens present, in addition to the library proposition it was expected that the right of way ordinance to the Paducah and Cairo-railroad would come up for passage.

The ordinance agreeing to appropriate $3500 for maintaining the library and $10,000 for a site was read and a motion made to defer action.

Councilman Elliott objected because of the urgent demands of the ladies and others who have worked to secure options on sites and to interest influential citizens in the enterprise.

Councilman Johnson called attention to the fact that the council could legally do nothing towards a purchasing a site, as there was no money appropriated for it.

Mr. Eli G. Boone was permitted to address the council, and reminded the council that it had purchased property before by merely agreeing to pay for it out of the next levy. Attention was called to the fact, however, that while this council might agree to pay for the property out of the next levy, the new council might refuse to make the appropriation when the time came. In response to an inquiry, the mayor said that at no future time could Mr. Carnegie claim the library, even if the council refused at any time to make the promised appropriation.

Councilman Johnson made an argument against a library, and asked if the benefit to be derived from one would justify the city in the expense it will be put to get it. He thought the funds could be devoted to better uses, $3500 a year would pay interest on bonds issued to improve and repair the streets.

Councilman Hannon spoke in favor of a library saying that there should be a library to help educate the poor. Upon a vote the following were for deferring action: Johnson, Jackson, Gilson, Smith, Rudolph and Davis. This carried it and the new council will have to decide the matter.

The water company was instructed to extend mains on Myers street from Kilgore's factory to Mill street. The mayor, city attorney and street committee were appointed to secure right of way near Goebel avenue to make improvements preventing the washing away of Baumer's fill.

Contractor Terrell was granted until January 7, 1902, in which to complete the following improvements: Tenth street from Terrell street to Terrell's farm line; Madison from Sixteenth street to Fountain avenue; Madison from Fountain avenue to Bradshaw's line; Harrison from Sixteenth to St. Bernard coal tipple.

Mayor Lang made a statement relative to the recent analysis of water, stating that both had proven it pure. He did not make the statement in defense of the company, but in behalf of the city. The reports were ordered spread on the minutes.

The Paducah and Cairo railroad right of way was postponed, and will not be brought up until the new council is inducted into office.

The improvement by graveling of Fourteenth street, and the sidewalks on Washington from Seventh to Ninth were accepted.

The council then adjourned.

DIED OF LUNG TROUBLE.

Hopkinsville, Ky., Nov. 9.—The wife of W. T. Bronaugh of Casky died of lung trouble. She had been sick about two years.

NEWS FROM THE BUSINESS WORLD

Clearings this week, $592,920.

Last year, $424,903.

Increase, $168,017.

Business at the banks the past week was very good with heavy clearings. Money is in good demand. Deposits are holding up well.

The wholesalers, in all branches, of business, report trade "good." The whiskey houses, especially, are shipping some nice bills. Friedman, Keiler and Co., report heavy shipments south and west, and Loeb, Bloom and Co., some big bills to the western trade. There is little trade in the lighter beverages.

With the wholesale grocers ship ments hold up fine with some, two or three of the local houses doing the biggest business of their career. Collections are only fair.

The saddle and harness trade is in the throes of the dull season.

There is little doing in tobacco at present. Some of the new crop was sold during the week, however. Four hogsheds were on the prairie at Gilbert and Co's and brought very fair prices. The stock of unsold tobacco on hand is light.

The canning factory is running full force, and overtime this week, canning pumpkins, the force working every night until 9 o'clock. The management reports an eight months' run this season. The goods are of the very best quality and everywhere they have been seen to jump into immediate favor. Several carloads are billed for Memphis next week.

The continued warm weather is the delight of the contractors and builders and they are rushing work on the numerous buildings being erected and the indications are that there will be a good deal of building all winter.

Retail trade is good notwithstanding very unseasonable weather.

The Sutherland Medicine company reports continued heavy demands for Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey. The company will hold a meeting Monday to vote on an increase in the capitalization.

GOES TO GRAND RIVERS

Mr. E. H. Simmons, of St. Louis, Was in the City This Morning.

The Grand Rivers Furnaces Are to Start Within the Next Two Weeks.

MR. SIMMONS TO BE SUPERINTENDENT

Mr. E. H. Simmons and wife of St. Louis passed through the city today en route to Grand Rivers on business. Mr. Simmons is a member of the firm of Simmons Hardware Co. of St. Louis, and is also a big stockholder in the Grand Rivers Furnace Co.

He stated today that the furnaces will be in operation, it is thought, within the next two weeks, which is very good news to Paducahans, as well as the residents of Grand Rivers. The delay has been occasioned by the delay in securing material, but now all the difficulties are about over, and the finishing touches are being made.

Mr. Simmons will probably be made superintendent of the plant, as before stated in The Sun, but he has not yet received the appointment.

M'KINLEY MEMORIAL.

SENATOR HANNA SUGGESTS THAT ABOUT $750,000 SHOULD BE USED—CANTON MONUMENT HAS RIGHT OF WAY.

Washington, Nov. 9.—A considerable portion of the time of the cabinet today was devoted to talking over plans of the National William McKinley Memorial association. Before the cabinet met formally, Senator Hanna discussed the subject with the President and cabinet. He explained the necessity for absolute harmony between the association, of which he is trustee, and the McKinley Memorial Arch association of this city, but argued that in seeking popular subscriptions the former organization, which plans the erection of a suitable monument at Canton, should have the right of way. Senator Hanna thought that about $750,000 should be used in the erection of a suitable monument.

SCHOOL TEACHER DIES.

Hickman, Ky., Nov. 9.—Miss Edna Wiseman, a popular young teacher in the schools of Fulton county, died of typhoid pneumonia after several weeks' illness.

DROWNED IN A POOL.

Owingsville, Nov. 9.—Louis Young, an aged and wealthy farmer, was drowned in a pool on his farm while watering his horse.

ARE MAKING LITTLE PROGRESS

The County Commissioners Were in Session An Hour Today.

They Will Probably Not Finish the Count Until Next Tuesday Evening.

THE CONTEST NOT YET REACHED.

County Election Commissioners J. J. Dorian, Will Yancey and sheriff Rogers met at the court house at 11 o'clock this morning, and after an hour's work adjourned until Monday on account of urgent business which necessitated the absence of Sheriff Rogers.

Yesterday the commissioners were unable to do anything because Mr. Yancey was out of the city.

About the first thing to be done Monday is to canvass the returns from the precincts in which there are ten disputed ballots, which will decide Shehan-Barnett magisterial contest. These ballots will be passed on the first thing Monday.

It is possible that the commissioners will finish up Monday, but probable that they will not conclude their work until Tuesday.

NOTHING IN IT.

THE MARINE WAYS NOT SOLD OR LEASED.

Mr. William Hughes, the secretary of the Marine Ways Co. was questioned this morning as to the alleged leasing of the Paducah Marine Ways by a Pittsburgh combine of towboats and he said that no correspondence to that effect had ever come into his hands and that the ways had not been leased.

Mr. Sam Hughes, who is also an officer in the ways company, said that he had heard nothing to that effect. "I know nothing of the leasing of the ways," Mr. William Hughes said this morning, "and can state positively that they have not been leased. The only correspondence that has passed through my hands from any Pittsburgh towboat company was relative to repairs on boats owned by the company and not in one instance did they touch on the sale or on the leasing of the ways."

A GREAT COMBINATION.

Hank Snider's Great Combined Shows arrived in Metropolis today in their own three private spring wagons.—Metropolis Herald.

THE WEATHER.

Fair and cooler tonight. Sunday fair.

CAPT. JOE FOWLER

Elected President of the Two Packet Companies at Last Night's Meeting.

He Succeeded the Late John Gilbert in the Evansville Packet Company.

IS A DESERVED RECOGNITION

At a directors' meeting of the Tennessee and Ohio Transportation Co., held in their office yesterday afternoon in this city, Captain J. H. Fowler was elected to the presidency of the company made vacant by the death of Captain John Gilbert, of Evansville, last July. Captain H. C. Gilbert was elected to the office of superintendent, but will remain in command of the steamer John S. Hopkins. There was also a meeting of the Paducah and Cairo Steam Packet Co. held in this city which elected Captain J. H. Fowler president; S. A. Fowler general freight and passenger agent and G. C. Crumbaugh secretary and treasurer.

The former is the company which controls the Evansville packet, and the latter is the newly incorporated company which owns and operates the Dick Fowler.

The election of Captain Fowler to the presidency of both companies is a fitting recognition of his long service and unsurpassed ability. He had been superintendent of the Evansville boats for years and is one of the best and most popular river men from Pittsburgh to New Orleans.

MARRIED IN ILLINOIS.

YOUNG MAN FORMERLY OF THE CITY WEDS AT MOUND CITY.

News was received here today of the marriage of Mr. M. F. Culver, formerly clerk at the St. Nicholas hotel here, who was married in Mound City to Miss Carrie Atherton, of Cairo, and the marriage has been kept a secret since the date, October 22, 1901. Mr. Culver is now manager of the Guy Eichenberger restaurant in Cairo and is a young man of much business integrity. His many friends here will be pleased to learn of his marriage. Miss Atherton has visited here and is also well known.

SURRENDERS.

WEALTHY CITIZEN OF SEVIERVILLE, TENN., CHARGED WITH COMPLICITY IN A MURDER.

Knoxville, Tenn., Nov. 9.—A special from Sevierville, Tenn., says Bob Catlett has given himself up to the sheriff of Sevier county to answer the charge of being an accomplice in the murder of William Whaley and wife in 1907.

Ples Wynn and Catlett Tipton were hanged in July, 1899, as the principals in the crime, and it was charged that Bob Catlett had paid them a sum of money to get Whaley and wife out of the way. Catlett was tried and released on one charge. He is one of the wealthiest men in Sevier county, and on this account extraordinary interest is attached to his surrender.

SHOT HERSELF.

Decatur, Ala., Nov. 9.—Miss Helen Hutton, a prominent young lady, committed suicide by shooting herself in the mouth with a 38 calibre revolver.

Mental depression caused by a disappointment in love is said to have been the cause.

GROWTH OF RURAL DELIVERY.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The statistics of the growth of rural free delivery service shows that on December 2 next there will be 6,000 carriers throughout the country, traveling a total mileage approximating 147,220 miles daily, or 24 1-2 miles each on an average. There have been 12,000 applications for routes, or twice the number of routes.

TRIP UP THE TENNESSEE

A Party of Chicago Gentlemen Left Paducah This Morning.

They Will Spend Ten Days Inspecting Tie Lands and Battle-fields.

CAME UP THIS MORNING FROM FULTON

Mr. J. B. Lord, of the Ayer-Lord Tie company, Chicago, and Messrs. Phil R. Smith, L. H. Stafford, Charles Savage and Wm. E. Cratt, of Chicago, arrived this morning at 7:45 o'clock from Chicago, via Fulton, en route up the Tennessee river.

They spent the forenoon in the city and inspected the company's fleet here, and left about noon on the Inverness for a ten days' trip up the Tennessee river to inspect the large tie fields, and go over the battle fields as far as Waterloo.

Their boat was handsomely fitted up for the occasion, and supplied here with waiters and other auxiliaries, and the party found that Captain Baker, the local agent, had left nothing undone for their pleasure and comfort.

The Inverness is one of the company's best boats, and will make good time on the trip. The gentlemen in the party are prominent men of Chicago, and it is the first trip of some of them up the Tennessee river.

Captain Baker accompanied them, and on account of his familiarity with everything up the Tennessee river will make a valuable addition to the party.

WANTED A WRIT.

BUT THE POLICE ONLY PROMISED TO PAY HER FUNERAL EXPENSES.

"Aunt" Martha Conner, colored, is mother-in-law of Will Gordon, a cripple, who was recently tried for assaulting her with a crutch and almost fracturing her skull. It seems that since the trial he has not been very friendly towards her. This morning she was at the police station bright and early.

"I want a writ fo' Will," she said. "Will who?" she was asked. "Will Go'den, ma son-in-law," she replied. "He dun feasted fo' to kill me agin."

Her fears were regarded as groundless by the police and upon their promise to pay her funeral expenses in case Will carries out his threat she left apparently satisfied.

ATTEMPTED MURDER.

LEM ARMSTRONG SHOT HIS DIVORCED WIFE AT MOUND CITY.

Cairo, Ill., Nov. 9.—Lem Armstrong shot his divorced wife in the head at Mound City yesterday afternoon. She may die. Armstrong also shot at Cornelius Carr who was with the woman. He escaped injury. Armstrong was arrested. The woman was formerly known as Lovie Taylor.

SMALL MOB.

TORE DOWN PLATFORM SCALES AT FRANKFORT.

Frankfort, Nov. 9.—A small mob at South Frankfort at midnight tore down and removed Miss Hallie Herndon's platform scales, which hindered the building of a vitrified brick street. Miss Herndon had ignored the court's removal order.

COLLECTOR SAPP RESIGNS.

HIS SUCCESSOR WILL PROBABLY BE EX-AUDITOR STONE.

Washington, Nov. 9.—Mr. C. E. Sapp, revenue collector at Louisville, has resigned his position. His successor will probably be ex-Auditor Stone.

PROJECT POSTPONED.

The public library project came up in the council last night and was postponed until after December 1, which was a delicate way of the present council's expressing its desire to avoid the responsibility for any action whatever in the matter. In the arguments pro and con, some very good points were made but none of them is sufficient to excuse the city, at least in the minds of the people, if it lets slip an opportunity to get a $38,000 building for nothing. It is very plain, however, that the city now has no funds with which to purchase a site such as should be provided for a public library, and owing to the fact that it is uncertain when there is to be another tax levy made, the present council could not with any degree of certainty guarantee the money for a site or an appropriation, for it goes out of office in three weeks, and the new council might refuse to appropriate the necessary amounts after the present council has promised them. The new council would not be obligated to appropriate $3500 or any other amount on resolutions passed by the present council. As long as future councils desire to appropriate that amount annually to maintain a library, it will be all right, but whenever a council desires to cut off the funds, there could be nothing to prevent it, for a council cannot spend money that is not appropriated, and cannot appropriate money beyond the levy for each fiscal year.

It is well to fairly and impartially weigh all the facts in the case. They do not look very reassuring for the library promoters, but they are facts nevertheless. It may have been wise for the council to take the action it did last night. The new council will be in two years, and if it guarantees the money for a site, or an annual appropriation of $3500, it will have two years to make good its promises, while the present council, had it taken any definite action, would have been totally unable to fulfill its promises, and what it did last night might have been undone in a few weeks by the new council. It is unpleasant for the people to have to wait, but it may be the wisest thing to do.

A M'KINLEY MEMORIAL ARCH.

The William McKinley National Memorial Arch Association has been incorporated under the laws of the District of Columbia for the purpose of erecting at the national capital a suitable memorial expressing the affectionate regard of the people of the United States for our beloved president. It is desired to erect a national memorial arch by popular subscription, and to this end has been formed the association, which has elected a corps of capable officers to manage the fund. It is proposed to place the arch at the Washington approach to the Memorial bridge across the Potomac, connecting Washington with Arlington, which President McKinley desired and recommended to express "as monument to American patriotism." Contributors to the fund will be made members of the association, and certificates of membership will be forwarded to all contributors. Those who will take contributions as postmasters, managers of telegraph, telephone, or express offices, and newspapers, or funds may be deposited with banks or other financial institutions. The association is in entire sympathy with the proposition to erect a memorial to the late president at his grave in Canton, O., but contributions are only for the arch at Washington.

It is believed that the response to requests for offerings will be as prompt as they are sincere, for the people of the United States without regard to locality, sex or politics have heretofore given evidence of the esteem in which they held him as one of our wisest, gentlest and best presidents, and their great grief at his untimely death.

The Sun will receive and transmit all contributions handed in at the office.

It is reported that all the time honored, moth-eaten bills that can be resurrected from the pigeon holes of the powers will now be presented to Turkey for payment, and if she doesn't come across with the money, a fleet will be set to run in another blunder.

The Schley case has suspended operations for a couple of weeks, but meanwhile the newspapers may devote the same amount of space they did during the trial to telling what "it is reported" the courts' decision will be.

The keeper of secret order finances who confesses to gobbling $57,000 of the funds entrusted to his care does not explain how he contrived to let the rest get away.

Marshal James Collins ought at least to be given special police powers when he goes out of office, so he can ride on the street cars free.

The Sultan's credit has been rehabilitated. It's easy enough to collect money from him if you only go about it in the right way.

The street roller has every assurance of getting another four years' rest.

ONCE A SERVANT.

IDENTITY OF "PRINCE RANJIT" WHOSE MAGNIFICENCE STARTLED LONDON.

New York, Nov. 9.—The mystery as to the identity of "Prince Ranjit," of Baluchistan, which puzzled London for two weeks and finally induced the India office to publish an official bulletin about him, has been cleared up in New York within 24 hours after his arrival. This Hindoo was a servant in a New York restaurant.

The London dispatches two weeks ago described the Oriental magnificence maintained by "Prince Ranjit." He has with him a large retinue of attendants, spends most of his time in bed and has dancing girls to amuse him. In London he engaged forty rooms at a swell hotel.

AN AWFUL DEATH

FROM HYDROPHOBIA.

Chicago, Ill., Nov. 9.—While suffering from hydrophobia August Brooksick knocked a policeman down and was subdued only after assistance had arrived and chloroform had been administered. He was taken to the detention hospital, where he died soon after his arrival.

When a girl says emphatically that she won't it is morally certain that she will; when she says she will, will she?

COLDS

The quickest relief, for a cold, is by Scott's emulsion of cod-liver oil.

We all have colds, you can try it and see. You will find the edge taken off in a night; and, in three or four days, you'll be wondering whether that cold amounted to anything anyhow.

That's relief. If you tackle it quick, the relief is quick and complete, if you wait till the cold is in full possession of head and lung, why, of course, the relief is quick if it comes in a week.

A little emulsion won't clear and restore your whole breathing-machine in a minute; don't be looking for miracles.

We'll send you a little to try, if you like. SCOTT & BOWNE, 409 Pearl street, New York.

NOT A NEW TRIAL FOR CAPT. CARTER

PROCEEDINGS IN CHICAGO MERELY A CIVIL SUIT AGAINST HIS PROPERTY. INSTITUTED BY THE GOVERNMENT TO RECOVER MISAPPROPRIATED FUNDS.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The cabinet meeting developed the fact that there exists an entire misapprehension concerning the legal proceedings which are to take place in Chicago in the case of Capt. Oberlin M. Carter, who was convicted by military court martial of embezzlement and sentenced to a term in the prison at Leavenworth, Kan.

Attorney General Knox explained to the President and cabinet that Capt. Carter was not to be given a new trial before Judge Kohlsaat, as had been erroneously reported. The government attached about $150,000 of the property belonging to Capt. Carter, and the question which will be tried before Judge Kohlsaat relates only to the title to that property. Incidentally, of course, the question of Capt. Carter's conviction by military court will be raised.

MASONIC COMMITTEE IN SESSION

PREPARING RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR THE HOME FOR THE AGED AND INFIRM.

Shelbyville, Ky., Nov. 9.—Judge Howard R. French, of Mt. Sterling; Judge John A. Ramsey, of Owingsville; J. W. Staten, of Brooksville, and Frank Johnson, of Louisville, the committee appointed by the Masonic Grand lodge of Kentucky to install the Home for Aged and Infirm Masons, which has been located in Shelbyville, are in the city engaged in the task of preparing rules and regulations to govern the institution. There are several applications before the committee for the desirable position of superintendent of the home.

LIBERAL VICTORY.

COLOMBIAN REBELS TAKE THE TOWN OF TAMUO AND MAKE SEVERAL HUNDRED PRISONERS.

Washington, Nov. 9.—The state department is in receipt of a dispatch dated October 23 from the United States consul general at Panama reporting that the Liberal forces have captured the town of Tamuco, south of Panama about 500 miles. They took 400 to 600 soldiers prisoners and captured five or six cannon, many rifles, a quantity of ammunition and one small ship, the Galitan.

BY SPIDER BITE.

HORRIBLE FATE OF A LITTLE GIRL IN HENDERSON COUNTY.

Eminence, Ky., Nov. 9.—Susie, the four-year-old daughter of George Thomas, colored, was taken suddenly ill with what the parents supposed was a boil over the heart, but she became so much worse at 2 o'clock yesterday morning that a physician was summoned, and what they thought was a boil turned out to be a spider bite, from the effects of which she died an hour later.

STARS TO FALL.

The wonderful display of meteors which startled the northern hemisphere in the month of November of the years 1799, 1833 and 1867, was announced by some English astronomers as due to reappear November, 1897. But the watchers were disappointed; and the cause assigned for this disappointment was that the swarm of meteors from which the shower falls had been either diverted from its usual course, or had been wholly scattered by the influence of some of the large planets. The probability is, however, that we shall behold this grand display again, about November 15, 1901.

MARRIAGE AT PRINCETON.

Princeton, Ky., Nov. 9.—Dr. R. Woods Ogilvie and Miss Jimmie Lester were married here at the residence of Mrs. S. F. Dixon, the bride's grandmother, Rev. R. W. Morehead performing the ceremony. Both are popular, well known and belong to two of the best families in the state.

MANY NUTTERS.

HUNDREDS CROSS INTO THE ILLINOIS BOTTOMS TODAY.

The Illinois Bottoms across the river are alive with Paducah nut gatherers and the ferry boat carried over a larger crowd today than it has handled this season. About three hundred and fifty went over on the morning trips and nearly that many on the afternoon trips. A great many intend to stay over Sunday and return in skills and on the early trip of the Bettie Owen Monday morning. The nuts are now ripe and there is little trouble in securing them. The boat is now forced to go around the lower bar because of the shallow water but there is no danger of the craft becoming grounded and the public need not fear on this score. It is thought that fully five hundred passengers will be carried over before the day is over.

In Our Shoe DEPARTMENT.

The Ideal $4.00 SHOE.

Dampness Excluded. Cold Insulated.

First. Outer sole of best oak leather. Second. Wool felt and rubber cushion requires easy tread, repels dampness and prevents squeaking. Ralston shoes never squeak in the soles.

Third. Half soles of best oak leather.

Fourth. Full sheet cork sole. The virtues of a cork sole are too well known to need commenting on here. It adds another cushion and keeps death, dampness and cold out.

Fifth. Best oak leather inner sole torated on the under side by a water-proofing treatment, which, when applied to it and the welt renders this shoe the nearest water proof of any leather shoe on the market. Does not draw your foot as a rubber overshoe. It likewise overcomes the defects of the ventilated shoe.

Pleasant Events and Personal Mention.

A DUET.

I sang a song of things that are,
A little song of things that be,
And titter on a rosy star,
Love poised and mocked at me.
"Oh, bright," sang I, "are woman's eyes—
Clear as the sun to seek and see,
With knowledge keen, with wisdom wise!"
"Until she loves," said love to me.
"Oh, sharp," sang I, "is woman's wit
As blade of chivalry;
Unfailing, sure, her grasp of it!"
"Until she loves," said love to me.
"Oh, fine," I sang, "is woman's ear
To know sweet truth from falsity,
When to be deaf and when to hear!"
"Until she loves," said love to me.
"Oh, true," I sang, "is woman's heart—
From wrong, from guile, from falsehood free;
An unflawed jewel stored apart!"
"Until she loves," said love to me.
I sang a song of things that are,
A little song of things that be,
And titter on a rosy star,
Love poised and mocked at me.

A PRELUDE TO THE POSSIBLE.

The awakening of Society has been slow this fall. For some reason everything has seemed to be holding back, no one quite knew why; not for the absent ones, for even the latest summer-lingerer has been at home this long—time and settled down, with all the stored-up vitality of ocean waves and mountain breeze waiting eagerly to expend itself.
This week, though, something has seemed to stir us out of our deep Autumn Reverie. Has the season really opened in earnest? or is this merely a prelude to cheer us and give assurance that Autumn is not altogether "dead leaves" and ennui? At any rate something has blown aside the heavy mists of our Indian Summer lassitude, and we have been unusually gay this week. The afternoon entertainments have been in evidence, and with a dance, the big public euchre, and several shows at The Kentucky even the nights have been passably well filled. There has been nothing akin to a function, yet the informals are often the most enjoyable.
While the presence of a number of visitors in the city accounts for much of the pleasure of the week, it is hoped it may be no ignis fatuus but a literal enforcement of the happy optimism "things will take a turn."

WEDDING OF MISS

MAY TERRELL AND MR. SAMUELS ANNOUNCED.

The marriage of Miss May L. Terrell to Mr. Leslie B. Samuels of Bardonia Ky., will take place at Grace Episcopal church, Wednesday evening, December 11, at 8:30 o'clock. The prominence and charm of the bride make it an event of special interest to the social world, and it will be a beautiful ceremonial as well, with all the accessories of a brilliant society wedding.

Miss Terrell is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard G. Terrell and has a liberal endowment of the qualities that go to make the woman charming in home and society. Since her debut she has held undisputed the palm of being one of the most beautiful of Paducah's fair women, yet has borne her honor so unconsciously that she has kept her friends and made no enemies. Her rare social attraction, her sweetness of manner, her vivacity and wit have helped to make her easily one of the most universal social favorites in Paducah society, which she has held with no diminution of popularity during several years of bellehood.

Mr. Samuels is a rising young business man of Upper Kentucky and one of the owners of the Bardonia's Record, and must be a good all round man having proved himself here "the best man of many." He is to be congratulated on his good luck, yet Paducah society is not equal to granting him absolution just yet for depriving her of one of her most lovable daughters.

MRS. VORIS ENTERTAINS.

One of the most effective and artistic entertainments of the season was Mrs. Victor Voris' "Re(a)d Party" on Friday afternoon complimentary to her guests, Mrs. A. D. Whitesides and Mrs. Bert Essex of Indianapolis, Ind.

The Voris house is charmingly arranged with many cozy nooks and corners, a beautiful fernery, and flowers everywhere in evidence. No attempt at extra decorations was made except an emphasizing of the color red, with red shaded-candelabra, vases of red chrysanthemums, "re(a)d" books galore and a myriad of lights. Mrs. Voris wore a French gown of black this lace over white liberty, the skirt in vandykes with hand from front and panels of heavy jet, the bodice was made with a pointed yoke and yest of silver spangled tulle and jet touched up with velvet knots and brilliant buckles. Mrs. A. D. Whitesides wore a handsome costume of all black silk. Mrs. Essex, a gown of black fish net over liberty with rich applique of jet and carnations worn in cluster. Mrs. Voris was assisted by Misses Laura Sanders Mabel Rieke, Caroline Sowell, Jane Rivers, Martha Leech and Corrie Grundy, all attractively gowned. From a handsome silver urn in the dining room under a glow of red shaded-candelabra and amid dwarf palms, Mrs. C. E. Whitesides in a handsome black and red matinee costume poured coffee.

The scene was a most literary one with the interested guests poring over pretty folders to which were attached red cards and pencils. On these folders were forty-nine bright questions each to be answered by an author's name. The questions were all original and were the clever work of the bright hostess. The first prize, a copy of "God's Puppets," was won by Mrs. George Flournoy; for the second prize, "A Carolina Cavalier," Mrs. George Powell and Mrs. Luke Russell tied, and on cutting for it Mrs. Russell was successful.
A delightful hot luncheon, with almonds and bonbons in handsome cut glass dishes was served after the contest.

The guests invited to meet Mrs. Whitesides and Mrs. Essex were: Mrs. Richard G. Terrell, Mrs. George Flournoy, Mrs. W. E. Cave, Mrs. J. M. Worten, Mrs. J. P. Smith, Mrs. C. E. Whitesides, Mrs. Charles Moequet, Mrs. A. B. Sowell, Mrs. J. R. Dorris, Mrs. Luke Russell, Mrs. George Thompson, Mrs. George Powell, Mrs. Allie Cope, Mrs. W. C. Eubanks, Mrs. W. A. Martin, Mrs. John Little, Mrs. Wynne Tully, Mrs. Pat O'Brien, Mrs. Elizabeth Teasdale.

U. D. C. EUCHE PARTY.

The euchre party given by the United Daughters of the Confederacy on Thursday evening in the Campbell building was a signal success, and the chapter should be very proud of having carried through so large an entertainment with such perfection, and success financially as well. There were forty tables at euchre, and the playing continued from 8 to 11 o'clock. The prizes were many, valuable, useful and attractive, and were the donations of the merchants of the city. The scores were kept by Mrs. W. A. Davis, Miss Anne Boswell, Miss Minnie Terrell, Miss Margie Crumbaugh, Mrs. Irma Hecht and Miss Elizabeth Carney. The prizes were graciously presented by Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, Miss Jane Rivers and Miss Ada Thompson. Miss Bessie Patterson conducted the raffle for the handsome writing desk, which was won by Dr. W. L. Hansbro. Mr. Abram L. Weil kept the door, and Mr. W. H. Patterson regulated the time of the games.

Mr. Mark Worten, who won the first prize for the married men, which was a barrel of flour, and Mrs. Jeannette Weille, the winner of the married ladies' first prize, a fine ham, very generously presented them to the Home of the Friendless.

Those who won the prizes were: Married ladies, Mrs. Jeannette Weille, Mrs. Will L. Levy, Mrs. Charles J. Kiger, Mrs. James Clements, Mrs. W. J. Gilbert, Mrs. Minnie Rankin, Mrs. I. Young, Mrs. J. Victor Voris, Mrs. William Wright, Mrs. Charles E. Graham and Mrs. Nick Hans; married gentlemen, Messrs. Mark Worten, Wynn Tully, Charles E. Graham, James Utterback, Lloyd W. Boswell and W. K. Poage; young ladies, Misses Christman, Stone, Mary Corbett, Corrie Grundy, Clara Thompson, Pauline Houston, May V. Patterson, Mary Brazleton, Ella Sanders, Anderson, Anna Larkin, Lena Edwards and Mary Boswell; young men, Messrs. Frank Lucas, Gardner Gilbert, Gus Thompson, Charles Thompson, Wallace Weil,

AN INFORMAL DANCE.

Quite a delightful dance was enjoyed at the handsome Gregory home on North Ninth street on Wednesday evening. It was given by Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory in honor of their house guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schooler, of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Susie Humble of Lebanon, Ky., and although an informal affair, was none the less pleasant and enjoyable.

The large parlors with their highly polished floors made ideal dancing rooms. Delicious refreshments of chocolate and cake were served during the evening.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Charles Schooler, of Birmingham, Mr. and Mrs. George Flournoy, Miss Susie Humble of Lebanon, Miss May Terrell, Miss Elizabeth Sinnott, Miss Mary Boswell, Miss Jane Rivers, Miss Laura Sanders, Miss Allan Rody, Miss Anne Reed, Mr. Wallace Weil, Douglass Nash, George Thompson, Frank Boony, Will Bradshaw, Jr., Will Minnieh, Edwin J. Paxton, Dr. I. B. Howell, Dr. Marmaduke Dillon, Dr. Wilson.

U. D. C. MEETING.

The United Daughters of the Confederacy met with Mrs. James Koger on Tuesday afternoon. It was the regular meeting of the chapter, but there was much special business to be transacted, which made the session of more than usual interest. The state meeting at Elizabethtown on November 20 and 21 was discussed, and Mrs. Victoria Thompson was chosen delegate to represent the local chapter on this occasion, which position she will fill with honor and ability.

It was the annual election of officers, and Mrs. Victoria Thompson was re-elected president; Mrs. David G. Murrell was made first vice president, and Mrs. John Campbell, second vice president; Miss Elizabeth Sinnott was re-elected recording secretary; Mrs. Luke Russell was chosen corresponding secretary; Mrs. James Koger was again made treasurer; Mrs. Thomas E. Moss was elected historian, and Mrs. Robert Becker Phillips assistant historian.

It was a pleasant meeting, with quite a large attendance.

SANS SOUCI CLUB

Mrs. William Gilbert entertained the Sans Souci club at cards at her pretty home on North Eighth street on Tuesday afternoon. It was the first meeting of the club for the season, and was a most delightful occasion. Euchre was played, and the first prize, a dainty atomizer in bisque, was captured by Miss Mary Corbett; the booby prize, a pretty rose leaf pillow, went to Miss Hattie Terrell. The hostess presented each guest with exquisite red dahlias as souvenirs. A delicious and attractive luncheon was served after the game. The guests were: Mrs. Mark Worten, Miss Susie Humble of Lebanon, Ky., Miss Minnie Terrell, Miss Hattie Terrell, Miss Mabel Rieke, Miss Irene Scott, Miss Anna Boswell, Miss Margie Crumbaugh, Miss Myrtle Greer, Miss Lula Reed, Miss Florence Yeiser, Miss Mary Corbett, Miss Susanne Jorgenson, Miss Gertrude Asher, Miss Clara Thompson, Miss Laura Sanders.

MUSICAL CLUB MEETING.

The Musical club enjoyed a most pleasant meeting on Tuesday evening with Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells and Miss Virginia Lesh. The attendance was quite good, a number of the active members being present, and, also, the honorary members, who are the ministers and their wives.
The solos of Mr. Emmett Bagby, Mr. Will Green and Mr. Robert Chastaine were much enjoyed.
Miss Adah L. Brazleton's fine paper on "Some of Our Leading Musicians" was a delightful feature of the evening. The duet of Miss Virginia Lesh and Miss Mamie Dreyfuss gave much pleasure.
Some important business came up for consideration, but the session was mainly social.

The Musical club is a fortnightly affair, and usually meets on Monday evenings.

MISSIONARY TEA.

The missionary tea of Grace Episcopal church met with Mrs. L. W. Emery on Friday afternoon. It was a most interesting and pleasant meeting, and quite a number were present. Mrs. Richard Terrell gave a fine article from "The Spirit of Missions" on "The Progress of the Kingdom." Miss Alice Compton's paper on the recent "General Convention in San Francisco" was very much enjoyed. Miss Kones of New York City, who was the guest of the occasion, made a most delightful talk on the work of the "Woman's Auxiliary" of the Episcopal church, and the benefit of retired clergy, which is doing a splendid and needed work. The afternoon was one of especial interest and pleasure to all present.

VISITORS ENTER-

TAINED BY MRS. HERMAN WALLERSTEIN.

A very charming informal euchre party was given by Mrs. Herman Wallerstein on Thursday afternoon in honor of visitors in the city. The first prize, a beautiful embroidered center piece, was won by Mrs. Bertha Harris of St. Louis; the second prize, a handsome vase, by Mrs. Rosenfeld, of Rochester, N. Y.

A delightful lunch was served during the afternoon with Mrs. Wallerstein's usual attractive hospitality.

The out-of-town guests present were: Mrs. A. M. Rosenfeld, of Rochester, N. Y.; Mrs. Jake Hecht of St. Louis; Mrs. Cohen, of Cairo; Mrs. Bertha Harris, of St. Louis.

DAUGHTERS OF THE AMERICAN REVOLUTION.

The society of the Daughters of the American Revolution held an interesting meeting on Tuesday afternoon with Mrs. Hubbard S. Wells. American history is being studied this year in connection with the regular work, and is proving most pleasant. Two very fine papers were read at this meeting—Mrs. S. C. Vaughan told very entertainingly of "The First Settlements in America," and Mrs. M. B. Nash of "The Leading Discoverers of America."

Dainty refreshments were served by the hostess.

The next meeting will be with Mrs. D. G. Murrell.

MRS. SCHOOLER HONORED.

Mrs. W. M. Rawls gave a very charming one o'clock luncheon on Thursday complimentary to Mrs. C. H. Schooler of Birmingham, Ala. The Rawls' home is one of the most artistic in the city and lends itself readily to effective entertainments. The decorations of the table were crimson, with carnations for the center, and at each guest's place. The covers were laid for eight; and the menu was very delightful. The guests were: Mrs. C. H. Schooler of Birmingham, Ala., Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory, Mrs. Albert Jackson Decker, Mrs. William E. Cave, Mrs. Alonzo R. Meyers, Mrs. Milton G. Cope, Mrs. James P. Smith.

MRS. DREYFUSS'

EUCHE PARTY.

Mrs. Sol Dreyfuss entertained some fifteen or more guests very delightfully at euchre on Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. A. M. Rosenfeld of Rochester, N. Y., Mrs. Conon of Cairo, Mrs. Bertha Harris of St. Louis and Mrs. J. Hecht of St. Louis. The visitor's prize, a handsome bottle of perfume, was won by Mrs. Harris, and the guest's prize, a large chrysanthemum plant in full bloom, was captured by Mrs. Louis Levy. An elaborate six-course luncheon was served, which was quite an enjoyable feature of the afternoon's pleasure.

DELPHIC CLUB MEETING.

Mrs. Alonzo R. Meyers is the November hostess of the Delphic club, and the meeting with her on Tuesday morning was an especially pleasant one. "German Universities" was the interesting theme for discussion, and it was treated under two heads. "The German Universities Founded in the Fourteenth and Fifteenth Centuries" was very finely presented by Mrs. Louis M. Rieke, while the "German Universities Today and Famous German Scholars" was attractively given by Mrs. Luke Russell. Both subjects are broad, and admitted of the able treatment they received. The club is finding the new line of work especially helpful and interesting.

SUPREME AT THAT.

With touch that is dainty
As any bird that preens
And sails above the whitecaps,
She skims the magazines.
With eyes that are half blinded
By girlish thoughts that flit,
She reads the latest novel
Enough to talk of it.

Yet, deem her not constructed
Upon a shallow plan,
Her specialty lies higher,
For she can read a man!

—Life.

AN AFTERNOON EUCHE.

Mrs. J. Wallerstein entertained at euchre on Tuesday afternoon at her home on North Fourth street, in honor of her sister and guest, Mrs. A. M. Rosenfeld of Rochester, N. Y., and other visitors in the city. It was a most pleasant occasion, and was enjoyed by a number of guests. Mrs. Bertha Harris of St. Louis won the EVENING WHIST PARTY.

Mrs. Moses Schwab will entertain at whist this evening at her pretty North Sixth street home, in honor of Mrs. A. M. Rosenfeld of Rochester, N. Y., and other visitors in the city. Mrs. Schwab has given some very attractive entertainments, and this will be no exception. A number of guests are invited.

A NUTTING PARTY.

A pleasant party went over the river this morning to spend the day and gather nuts. Miss Mamie Noble is the hostess, and the guests are: Mrs. Will Gilbert, Miss Caroline Robion, Miss Lucie Robion, Miss Birdie Nash, Miss Jessie Nash, Miss Myra Gould, Miss Frances Gould, Miss Alice Compton, Miss Angie Thomas, Miss Cherie Morton, Miss Retta Hatfield, Miss Ethel Brooks; Mr. Stewart Dick, David Koger, Lowrie Smith.

DR. AND MRS. CAVE.

General regret is being expressed and felt over the decision of Dr. W. E. Cave to leave for Petersburg, Va., if the Presbytery accepts his resignation. Dr. Cave's call to a larger field of usefulness seems imperative in its thrice-repeated demand, but he and his charming wife and family will be a decided loss to Paducah in many ways. This has been Mrs. Cave's home from girlhood, and she is identified with its social life, and has ever been a popular favorite, though filling the somewhat arduous position of a minister's wife without a criticism. Dr. Cave's popularity as a leading minister of the city is not greater than that of his wife, and they will be greatly missed in the all-varied circles of the city, which they have touched.

THE COMING WEEK.

The Delphic club meets with Mrs. A. K. Meyers on Tuesday morning. "German Drama" will be discussed.

The Sans Souci club will be entertained by Miss Lula Reed next week.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Mrs. A. D. Whitesides and Mrs. H. B. Essex of Indianapolis, who have been visiting Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Whitesides and Dr. and Mrs. J. V. Voris, will return home on Monday. They have been the guests of honor at some charming entertainments while here, and have made many friends.

Mrs. Will Hudson and little Miss Irene Hudson, who have been the guests of Mrs. Hudson's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Byrd of West Trimble street, returned home this week.

Mrs. W. E. McGary left this week for an extended stay in Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Wilcox have left "The Inn," and are now at the Palmer House for the winter.

Capt. and Mrs. Woodward and Miss Estelle Woodward of New Orleans are at the Palmer House for a two weeks' stay, en route home from their summer in the North. Capt. Woodward and family made many friends here, while they were the pleasant guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. McLellan at "The Inn" last summer.

Miss Mary Quick of Princeton, who has been the attractive guest of Miss Mary Owen of Jefferson street for several weeks, has returned home.

Miss Ruth Edwards of Wingo is the guest of her sister, Mrs. Matt Piles of North Eighth street.

Miss Susanne Jorgenson returned home Monday from a pleasant visit to Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. V. J. Blow of Madison street left this week for Louisville, Chicago and Terre Haute.

Mrs. Leonard James and little son, Palmer, returned this week from a visit to Union City, Tenn.

Miss Grace Turner of Evansville, who has been the popular guest of her sister, Mrs. George Powell of West Broadway, returned home this week.

Mrs. W. M. Rawls has returned from a pleasant visit to Miss Clementine Stave of Springfield, Ill.

Miss Margaret Park of Mayfield is the guest of Miss Lula Reed. Miss Park is a very attractive young lady, and has visited here before.

Miss Helen Kones of New York City is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. George Langstaff. Miss Kones is a very charming and cultured woman, the principal of Miss Kones' school in New York City, which Miss Faith Langstaff attended last year.

Mr. and Mrs. William Purcell of Cleburne, Texas, will arrive next week to visit relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Purcell formerly lived in Paducah, and have many friends to welcome them.

Mrs. Anna L. Berry and Mrs. John Berry of Uniontown, Ky., are visiting Judge and Mrs. Alvin Berry

Miss Julia Scott returned this week from a visit to Jackson, Tenn., during the street fair. En route home she stopped by McKenzie, Tenn., to visit her brother, Mr. Edward Scott, who is at school there.

Friends here of Major and Mrs. M. Bloom and of Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Einstein of St. Louis are rejoicing with them over the arrival of a young daughter in the Einstein household. If she is as popular a young lady as her attractive mother, she will win friends in life.

Miss Susie Humble, who is visiting Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory, went to Lebanon for a several days' visit this week. She will return on Monday to spend the winter here. Miss Humble has won many friends since she has been here.

Mrs. E. E. Ellis of Dyersburg, Tenn., is the guest of her mother, Mrs. Carrie Flournoy, of Harrison street.

Miss Martha Leech leaves tonight for Memphis, where she will visit before going to Minnesota to be present at the wedding of a friend, at which she will be an attendant.

Hon. D. A. Yeiser and family have moved in from their summer home in Arcadia, and are occupying their winter residence on North Fourth street, which has been recently purchased and fitted up.

Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Schooler of Birmingham, Ala., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar L. Gregory this week, and received much social attention, returned home today.

REFLECTIONS OF A BACHELOR.

Handsome is as ugly makes itself up.
Men who have married sisters seem to have a great deal of genuine sympathy for each other.

The rule which women have about secrets is always to keep those that are not worth telling.

Generally the woman who knows how to cook dislikes to do it as much as the woman who doesn't know how likes to do it.

What a woman can't understand is how a man will stay up every night for six weeks running all over town trying to make votes for a candidate he doesn't know but gets hopping mad if he has to run across the street to get some paregoric for his own baby.

"Let's play opera," said small Harry to his four year old sister. "I'll be the star."

"All right," replied the little miss, "and I'll be the moon."

When a man has the will power to be able to insist upon a girl's singing a second song when her first one nearly drove him wild, he has the will power to become President if he wants to.

"How is your throat this morning, darling?" asked an anxious mother of her little girl.

"Oh," answered the small patient, "The east side is all right, but the west side is awful sore."

A woman gives her neighbor a bad reputation with the same consistency she gives her cook a good reference when she discharges her for all manner of bad things.

Teacher—"How many seasons are there?"

Small Thomas—"Seven."

Teacher—"Why, I know of but four—spring, summer, autumn and winter. What are the other three?"

Small Thomas—"Salt pepper and mustard."

"Papa," said the little daughter of a dentist, "don't you think I ought to have some new shoes?"

"What's the matter with your old ones?" he asked.

"Oh, they are all decayed," she replied.

Little five year-old Margie was out walking with her mother recently and finding it difficult to keep up she said:

"Mamma, are you a stepmother?"

"No, dear," was the reply. "But what made you think I was?"

"Because you take such awful long steps," replied Margie.

OPENING, SEPTEMBER 9
By GEO. W. GOODALE, America's Greatest Critic.

"Her Lord and Master" gave its initial performance here last night is a work of varied and compelling interest. The story is fascinating, the situation ingeniously conceived holding the attention of the audience in thrall until the last curtain. The treatment of both scene and character is original, breezy, free from exaggeration and unhackneyed. The great dramatic scene of the play is the encounter between Lord Canning and his impetuous wife after the latter has gone to a place of amusement on Sunday night in opposition to her husband's wish. Here Effie Shannon gave rein to her passionate power of declamation and worked up a frenzy that evoked the stormiest applause.

DRAMATIC NOTES.

Miss Effie Shannon is to wear a replica of Queen Alexandria's gown in Paducah. It will be much like a private view in an atelier of one of the big modistes in Paris to visit the Kentucky theater on Tuesday evening, November 12 when Miss Effie Shannon, with Mr. Herbert Kelcey, will produce their new play, "Her Lord and Master." Miss Shannon will, on that evening unbox an array of beautiful gowns which to the women in the audience will convey some authoritative hints as to swagger fashions, and cause them to fairly gasp with appreciative delight. Perhaps not many Paducah women will have occasion to copy a hunting costume, which Miss Shannon will wear in the first act. This costume is made of green cloth laid in white box plaits, and trimmed with ooze leather. The loose blouse is of bright scarlet material, entirely tucked and hand embroidered. A jaunty hat and high boots of the ooze leather complete this costume. Changing from this outdoor garb to a dinner gown of white embroidered mousseline de soie the pretty fair haired actress offers a charming picture. In the next act Miss Shannon will wear two gowns. The first an English tailor made of pale gray Irish poplin. With this will be worn a chinchilla boa and shoulder cape, and a tiny bonnet of pale blue, which the queen, as the Princess of Wales, made distinctively her own. The second gown in this act is a very interesting one from the fact that it is an exact copy of one made for Queen Alexandria. It is of softest white satin, with a complete overdress of pointed applique, the rich Irish lace fairly shimmering in palest pastel shades of green, pink and blue. With this she wears a white cloth cape, trimmed with sable tails, and a heavy collar of genuine old Irish lace. For her last appearance in the play, the little actress wears a morning gown of pale rose colored silk tulle, the long flowing skirt draped with an exquisitely embroidered chiffon fleche.

Miss Shannon has long been known for her extreme originality and artistic taste. Several years ago the New York Herald offered a prize for the best dressed woman on the American stage. This was done by popular vote through the paper, and the prize was awarded Miss Shannon, she receiving 25,000 votes in two days.

Surrounded by a company of unusual excellence, magnificent and appropriate scenery, costumes historically correct and with an attention to the smallest detail Otis Skinner's revival of "Francesca da Rimini" has been conceded to be one of the greatest dramatic events of the season and has scored a veritable triumph in its recent presentation in Chicago. It is in such high-class work as is afforded him in the role of Lanciotto in "Francesca da Rimini" that Mr. Skinner is seen at his best. His engagement at The Kentucky, Wednesday night certainly will be an event.

"Human Hearts" is a play for all. It deals with humanity, the universal elements of life. In its unfolding, by illustration, it teaches moral lessons and we are told there is no better preaching than by example. None can blush to witness a performance of this drama, which can be said of a very few entertainments offered in our theaters today. Sustained interest and pervading charm are pronounced qualities found in this play. Its influence lasts long after the fall of the curtain. That "Human Hearts" will meet with a warm greeting at the hands of our theater-goers is a foregone conclusion. To those who have not yet had the pleasure it will be doubly welcome Monday night.

The recent success achieved by Mr. Otis Skinner in his revival of "Francesca da Rimini" is by far the most ambitious of the well known actor's career. Notwithstanding the high class of entertainment heretofore presented by Mr. Skinner, it is safe to state that nothing he has been seen in here before surpasses it in the magnificence and completeness of its presentation. Mr. Skinner has surrounded himself with a company of artists whose reputations have already been established, and include among its number such well known artists as Aubrey Bonciacault, Marcia Van Dresser, William Norris, Gertrude Norman, E. A. Eberle, W. J. Constantine and others of equal prominence. Mr. Skinner and his supporting company will be seen in its entirety at The Kentucky on Wednesday night.

Stars may come and stars may go, but James E. English's own company, Murray and Mack, the celebrated Irish comedians, seem, like the brook, to run on forever. Among the first to enter farce comedy, they have been running along with the leaders ever since, and if the truth were known, they have accumulated more money than any comedy team on the American stage. They have surrounded themselves with an unusually strong company this season, and have paid very close attention to the arrangement of details. An unusually large number of properties and scenery complete the three acts. They will present one of Mr. George Emerick's latest farces, "Shooting the Chutes," which is one of the delights of Coney Island and other resorts. It is a favorite pastime of the "silly season" and especially among the young people, if not with the old ones, who seek to have their blood circulated by some excitement of this kind. The plot is so simple that a child can understand it and so intensely funny that the old and the young alike are kept in an uproar of laughter. Among those supporting Murray and Mack are Kitty Beck, Lonnie Dean, Katherine Roberts, Jessie Sharp, Sisters Deane, Rose McKee, Billy Rose, Boulden and Griffin, and many others equally well known. A dazzling chorus of beauty, including the Five Rosaries, direct from the Alhambra theater, London.

Manager English went to Memphis Monday to see his own company headed by Murray and Mack, in "Shooting the Chutes" and was so well pleased with the performance, not having seen it since the opening early in the season, that he will have them at The Kentucky for two nights, November 19 and 20th instead of one night as originally booked.

"Human Hearts" is a play which gives a wholesome lesson, while arousing the sympathies of the spectators and moving them to tears.

THE EVENT OF THE SEASON

Mr. Herbert Kelcey and Miss Effie Shannon,

In Their Great Comedy Success

"HER LORD AND MASTER." By Martha Morton.

noy to laughter. "Human Hearts," is a forceful melodrama now launched upon another season of success. It is a play for the family, young and old. It is a relaxation from care and worry, a force in character building through exciting such feelings and sentiments as tend to develop and strengthen a man.

It will be pleasant news to the many friends made here by the charming and talented little singer, Miss Sophie M. Burnham, of the Wilbur Opera company, which played here week before last, to learn that she has been made prima donna of the company, which is now at Topeka, Kan. Miss Burnham's ability was instantly recognized by the management when she was employed about one month ago to sing between acts. She learned the most difficult roles in the various operas with the greatest ease, and having a fine, strong voice was soon equipped to become prima donna of the company, which place she now holds. It will also be pleasant news who is versatile and entertaining, and a general favorite. One of the most mirth-provoking comedians ever seen on a local stage was Mr. Joseph Kane, as the polite lunatic, and his every appearance provoked the greatest laughter. Mr. Edward J. Connelly as "Ichabod Bronson," president of the young men's Rescue League, is a droll and entertaining comedian with a voice that in itself was sufficient to convulse an audience with laughter. Miss Mae Sailor, as "Fifi" is a fine singer and a most captivating little actress, and proved to be one of the most popular members of the company. Miss Gertrude Rutledge, as the queen of comic opera and Miss Beulah Chase Dodge, as Violet Grey, the salvation army lassie, are shapely of form and have voices of great strength and beauty, and were well received, as they deserved to be.

Mr. Burrill Barabarto, as "Harry Bronson," the gay and festive young spendthrift, and Mr. James Darling, as "Mugg," the comedian, creditably to the people of Paducah to learn that the Wilbur company will be back here in February.

Tuneful and catchy music, elaborate stage settings, magnificent costumes, splendid voices, good acting and a well trained chorus abound in "The Belle of New York," which was presented at the Kentucky last night to one of the largest and most representative audiences that ever witnessed an attraction in Paducah.

The comic opera was well sung, and the principals came in successively for the plaudits of the delighted auditors. Mr. Arthur Deagon, as the mixed-nature pugilist, is a fine singer, an actor sang their respective roles. The scenery was both unique and gorgeous, and the costuming magnificent.

One of the best features was the burlesque on "yellow journalism" in the second act.

Miss Hattie Wells, the danseuse, and the Belle of New York octette were delightful features of this thoroughly delightful and up-to-date comic opera.

Manager J. E. English received many compliments on the merit of the production, and was very much pleased with the testimonial of the people's confidence in the large number who attended.

HAMPERING NEGOTIATIONS.

Sofia, Nov. 9.—The government last night caused the arrest of a man who was visiting United States Consul-General Dickinson and searched him, presumably thinking he was an emissary of the brigands, and expecting to seize a communication from or to Miss Ellen M. Stone, the American missionary. The man was subsequently released.

This action of the authorities was, seemingly, a deliberate attempt to frighten delegates who might visit Mr. Dickinson, and thus prevent negotiations from taking place in Bulgarian territory. The attitude of the authorities hampers Mr. Dickinson, as the brigands refuse to treat in Turkey.

DELIBERATE AND

AWFUL DEATH.

Leavenworth, Kas., Nov. 9.—Mrs.

William Textor committed suicide at her home here, early today. She thoroughly saturated her clothing with coal oil and then ignited it. When found she had been burned to death. The flesh was charred and burned in a horrible manner and the hair was entirely burned from her head. She was injured three weeks ago and her mind is believed to have been deranged by the wound.

STREET CAR EMPLOYEES LOSE.

Nashville, Nov. 9.—The Street Railway Employees' union, which was formed here some weeks ago, and which resulted in a lockout by the street car company, has disbanded and surrendered its charter. Most of the men have been trying to get back on the road, but the receivers have declined to reinstate them on the ground that they left the service of their own volition, and without cause.

Mr. Kelcey is likewise well measured for the part of Lord Canning and the author has shown wonderful knowledge of both the actor and the man and has given him the best of his many American opportunities. His acting is forceful and charged with feeling effectively expressed and bearing all the external marks of real manhood.

The supporting company is perfectly balanced, the settings most elaborate, and in one word the success of the new production is undoubted.

THE RIVER NEWS

(BY W. F. LAMBERT, REPORTER)

Observations taken at 7 a. m. River 1.8 on the gauge; no change in last twenty-four hours. Wind, south-east, a light breeze. Weather, foggy and warmer. Temperature, 49.
Pell, Observer.

The pleasure palace barge Idler being towed by the handsome little steamer Wanderer, will soon pay Paducah a visit stopping here for a day at least. This magnificent floating outfit is owned by Captain Chancey Lamb of Clinton, Iowa, and will make a trip up the Tennessee river going as far as Chattanooga if the water is sufficient. Some two years ago Captain Lamb with the same boat visited Paducah and had a party of most distinguished men accompanied by their families. They intended making this same trip up the Tennessee river but were prevented by low water. The Hon. Mr. Henderson, speaker of the house at Washington, was in the party. It would be impossible for us to describe the elegance and grandeur of Captain Lamb's pleasure palace floating boats.

The Dunbar departed for Cairo this morning with a good trip of passengers but rather light freight trip.

The Charleston is due from Tennessee river tomorrow.

The U. S. snagboat Lookout, Captain Louis Pell master, has rendered most valuable service in opening the channel between the head of Owen's Island and the towhead just above in Tennessee river.

There was a general holiday, an immense procession, a river parade and a big public rejoicing at New Orleans upon the arrival there last Wednesday of the greatest naval dock in the world.

The City of Memphis has been chartered from the St. Louis and Tennessee River Packet Co., to run in the St. Louis and Memphis trade. This points to a severe fight, in which the City of Memphis will oppose the Lee line steamers in the trade between St. Louis and Memphis.

Inverness, of the Ayer & Lord T. Co., left here this afternoon for Tennessee river. She will go through to Waterloo, Ala. Messrs. J. F. Lord and Edward Ayer, the heads of the company, arrived from Chicago at 11:15 a. m. today, accompanied by a small party of distinguished railroad men. The trip is principally one of pleasure, but, at the same time, there is some business connected with the trip. The Inverness has the most elegant quarters provided for the party, and the latter with the very best the land affords. Capt. Randal Ballowe is in command of the boat.

The river is on a stand here, with 1 foot, 8 on the gauge.
Business quite lively on the wharf today.

Don't be surprised if we should be blessed with general rains, which of course would be followed by a rise in the rivers and a general resumption of navigation.

The J. B. Richardson is the mail and express packet leaving here this evening for Evansville on account of low water. She is about two hours behind time.

The City of Clifton, from Tennessee river, arrived here last night at 10 o'clock, departing for St. Louis this morning. She had a very good trip.

At a meeting of the Paducah City Steam Packet Co., held in this city yesterday, Capt. J. H. Fowler was elected president and general manager, S. A. Fowler general freight and passenger agent and G. C. Clifton secretary and treasurer.

The Tennessee arrived from Tennessee river last evening at Paducah with a very good trip. She leaves on return trip at 5 o'clock this afternoon.

Mr. Wm. Campbell, a well known Ohio and Mississippi river pilot and son of Capt. Henry Campbell, was a passenger to Cairo this morning on the Dunbar. He came from Louisville here looking at the river.

GONE ON A HUNTING TRIP.

Hickman, Ky., Nov. 9.—The Fulton Hunting and Fishing club, comprising a number of prominent Fulton citizens, including Mott Ayers and S. D. Luten, arrived at Hickman. The club has chartered the steamer Hook White and the members, with their wives, will leave for St. Francis river, in Arkansas, for a several weeks' hunting trip.

Woman's Debt to Cardui

Wharton, Texas, January 31, 1901.

Before I began taking Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught I had almost given up the idea of trying to get relief from my trouble. My menses did not last more than two days and I had cramps in the lower part of my stomach and my limbs ached. My eyes and nostrils became sore. But now since taking Wine of Cardui and Theford's Black-Draught I passed this month without a pain and ran the whole time. I feel like a new woman. I advise all suffering women to take Wine of Cardui. I owe my health to your wonderful "Woman's Relief".
Mrs. A. D. PAIGE.

Why will any woman hesitate to take Wine of Cardui with Mrs. Paige's plain, honest story before her?

WINE OF CARDUI

regulates the menses perfectly and cures all the distressing ills that are caused by the irregular flow. There is no excuse for any reader of this paper submitting to days of suffering every month. Do you think Mrs. Paige would let her trouble run another day again, now that she knows what it is to be well and strong? You will be like another woman in a short time if you secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today and take it according to directions. Mrs. Paige is only one among thousands of women who have secured relief from Wine of Cardui. It cures leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, and every kind of "female trouble." Try it!

WARNING TO CHINA.

London, Nov. 9.—A secret dispatch passed through this city, says the Shanghai correspondent of the Times, reputed to be from the Chinese minister at St. Petersburg, warning the empress dowager that Russia is determined to take possession of Manchuria and that if the Manchurian convention is denounced other terms will be exacted which will gravely menace China's independence.

RICH AND POOR ALIKE SUFFER FROM CATARRH IN THIS CLIMATE.

All observant physicians have noticed the enormous increase in catarrhal diseases in recent years, and the most liberal and enlightened have cheerfully given their approval to the new internal remedy, Stuart's Catarrh

Tablets, as the safest remedy for catarrh yet produced.

One well known catarrh specialist, as soon as he had made a thorough test of this preparation discarded inhalers, washes and sprays, and now depends entirely upon Stuart's Catarrh Tablets in treating catarrh, whether in the head, throat or stomach.

Dr. Risdell says: "In patients who had lost the sense of smell entirely and even where the hearing has begun to be affected from catarrh, I have had fine results after only a few weeks' use of Stuart's Catarrh Tablets. I can only explain their action on the theory that the cleansing and antiseptic properties of the tablets destroy the catarrhal germs wherever found, because I have found the tablets equally valuable in catarrh of the throat and stomach as in nasal catarrh."

Dr. Estabrook says, "Stuart's Catarrh Tablets are especially useful in nasal catarrh and catarrh of the throat, clearing the membranes of mucous and speedily overcoming the hacking, coughing and expectorating."

Any sufferer from catarrh will find Stuart's Catarrh Tablets will give immediate relief, and being in tablet form and pleasant to the taste, are convenient and always ready for use, as they can be carried in the pocket and used at any time, as they contain no poisonous drugs, but only the cleansing properties of Eucalyptus bark, Guaiacum, blood root and Hydrastis.

All druggists sell the tablets at 50 cents for complete treatment.

KILLED BY ACCIDENT.

Montgomery, Nov. 9.—John Lutz, a proprietor of a small merchandise store here, was accidentally killed. Lutz and Jules Galatas has been out to the state farm, several miles from the city on a hunting trip. Lutz had a gun in his hand and attempted to go through a wire fence, and in doing so the gun was accidentally discharged and Lutz's right arm was shot off. He was brought to a physician and medical attention was given him, but he died three hours after the accident from loss of blood.

NERVOUS WOMEN

Nine out of ten women are nervous—suffering in silence. Sick headache is one of the first symptoms—things go on from bad to worse until utter collapse.

Don't delay—if you have frequent headaches that is a sure indication your stomach is wrong. Indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, liver and kidney troubles soon follow.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin and Herb Laxative Compound will quickly seek out and correct stomach complications—headaches disappear, your appetite is good, refreshing sleep is induced.

Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin is very pleasant to take, and is sold by all druggists—50c and $1 bottles.

SENT FREE. Trial bottle and valuable book on stomach troubles.

LOUGHBOUGH IDENTIFIED.

SUSPECT HELD IN ST. LOUIS
BELIEVED TO BE THE MONTANA BAD MAN.

St. Louis, Nov. 9.—John Rose, the man suspected of the robbery of an express car on the Great Northern railroad near Wagner, Mont., July 3, last, and who was arrested in this city by detectives on Tuesday, was today identified as Harry Loughbough, a celebrated western desperado. The identification was made by a St. Louis man who desires his name withheld. He was prosecuting attorney of Cook county, Wyoming, in 1887, and prosecuted Loughbough in that year on a charge of horse-stealing. Loughbough was convicted and sentenced to eighteen months in jail. The ex-prosecuting attorney described to Chief Desmond distinguishing marks of the Loughbough of 1887, and as these are all found upon Desmond's prisoner he is satisfied he has the bandit properly identified.
